

Middleton Police Front Line Supervisor

The Town of Middleton, New Hampshire (population approx. 1800) is seeking qualified candidates for the position of frontline supervisor for patrol. Located along the ME- NH border, this rural community is just minutes from the lake's region and 40 minutes from the seacoast. The Police Department has an authorized strength of 3 full-time officers including the chief, several part-time officers, and a part-time administrative assistant.

The ideal candidate will be full time certified through NH Police Standards and Training and have at least 5 years of police experience with 2 years of supervision. An operational knowledge of the court system, database entry, community policing, along with many other facets of the position needed to make them successful. Given the climate of the community the candidate would have a strong desire for community outreach, networking and great communication skills.

Competitive benefits package, with a salary range up to $75,000. Starting salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. All interested are encouraged to apply, precedence will be given to those already certified with supervision experience.

Middleton is an equal opportunity.
